What is your typical response to uncertainty?

What's going on in the world today that concerns you?

Main Course

Read 2 Thessalonians 2:1-12.

What most excites you about "the coming of our Lord Jesus?"

What is most unsettling to you about "the coming of our Lord Jesus?"

The church in Thessalonica was experiencing great affliction. How do you believe this would have influenced their thoughts regarding the return of Christ?

How does personal affliction impact the way you think about Christ's return?

False teaching had begun to impact the thinking of the church of Thessalonica. Where do you go for information on the return of Christ? How do you know it is trustworthy?

Why do we have no reason to be surprised by His Second Coming?

According to this passage, when will all of these events begin? What should we be looking for?

How will we know when Christ is about to return?

NOW, given this passage, why would someone be shaken by uncertainty?
